

BOSTON MAIN STREETS FOUNDATION

Supporting a new era of innovation in Boston's small businesses

Small businesses are critical to a resilient, inclusive, and equitable Boston.

BMSF is a public-private partnership that has invested more than $6 million in direct and indirect funding to drive economic development, community engagement, and visibility throughout Boston's 20 Main Street districts via:

- Boots on the ground business leadership and organization
- Direct assistance to local businesses via grants and technical support
- Store improvements, streetscapes, community activation programming
- Marketing & promotion of Main Streets citywide to enhance visibility
- District innovation grants to increase impact
